Winter sport in Südtirol/Alto Adige

Vipiteno-Racines does offer many opportunities and activities in winter time. You will find many toboggan runs, 100 kilometers of cross-country tracks, several miles of winter hiking trails and beautiful alpine ski touring routes on the mountain side. Meanwhile in the villages offer some ice skating rinks - all you need for a winter holiday to remember.

Cross-country skiing in Racines and Ridanna

Cross-country skiing takes place in impressive high valleys in Vipiteno-Racines. The excellent groomed cross-country slopes are nestled in impressive mountain sceneries, such as the Val Ridanna, Val di Vizze and Val di Fleres valleys. They all furnish with the latest snowmaking equipment, so that an active holiday on the cross-country tracks is guaranteed even in winters with little snow fall.

Tobogganing highlights

The Monte Cavallo toboggan slope is the longest artificial snow-covered and fully illuminates natural track in Italy. You will find rental centres by the three mountain cable cars Racines-Giovo, Monte Cavallo and Ladurns and use the funiculars to ascent to the mountain. Our recommendation: a moon toboggan run by night.

Escursioni invernali

Snow-capped winter hiking trails with panoramic views, white-covered sceneries in romantic mountain valleys and the clear, clean alpine air enrich the relaxing winter holiday in Vipiteno-Racines. The stop in cozy huts and welcoming mountain inns make winter hiking an unforgettable experience.

The Racines-Giovo ski area

Come into the winter world in South-Tyrol in our hotels in Racines. Our guests can choose between 8 different ski-lifts, 25 kilometers of slopes and 20 different ski-slopes. Our hotels not only satisfies its customers because of its location in the beautiful valley of Racines but also because it is so close to the skiing area Racines Giovo.

The South Tyrolean wine paradise

The viticulture in South Tyrol has a long tradition. The first wines were cultivated about 3000 years ago. More than 10,000 ha of vines were found in 1915, more than double compared to the current wine areas. Nonetheless, the vineyards are extending their areas and South Tyrol is highly vibrating wine producing province. Some of the best Italian wines are from South Tyrol. There are numerous different types grown in the area, more than 20 white and red wines. The variety is thanks to the different soils which support the wines and the mild climate. The Alps protect the area from the dry and cold northern winds and allow for warm winds from the lake Garda. Additionally, South Tyrol offers about 1,800 hours of sun yearly – something the grapes enjoy a lot. The South Tyrolean vines grow from 200 until 1,000 m in altitude.

South Tyrolean white wines are among the best Italian wines. The fresh and aromatic wines such as the Pinot blanc, the Sauvignon and the Gewürztraminer are on a high quality level.

The South Tyrolean red wines do also include specialties. The diverse Vernatsch wines and the Lagrein dominate the field, which are grown by most wine-makers in the province. The vineries specialise in fine nuances and elegant wines which are more than the perfect addition to bacon and other hearty dishes. The Pinot Noir, the Cabernets and the Merlots are also among the high quality red wines.

Many wine-growers rely on modern techniques such as organic methods. Numerous wineries are changing their methods now which shows their interest in sustainable agriculture. Even though the cultivation conditions aren't that easy because of steep vineyards the cost-performance-ratio is convincing.

South Tyrol is among the most important wine-growing areas of Italy. The province won numerous prizes such as Three Glasses in the wine guide „Vini d'Italia“ (ed. by Gambero Rosso and Slow Food).

An hour of full relaxation

This is a relaxing full body massage with special St John's wort oil, that is anti-inflammatory. It also increases the blood flow and is wonderful to release muscle tensions. At the end of the treatment a warm hay cushion will be applied to the shoulder-neck part. Deep relaxation is guaranteed.

St. John's wort oil

St. John's wort oil is one of the most used home remedies! It is a superb massage oil; but it also helps with cuts, scrapes, minor burns, sore muscles and growing pains. St. John's wort oil is an amazing home remedy for minor burns. It helps to stop the pain and heal the burn. St. John's wort oil helps with muscle strain and tension. The more you use it, the better it is. You can massage it into tense, sore muscles several times a day and it helps to relax the muscles. St. John's wort has a vulnerary action on the skin, which means it helps the skin to regenerate and heal. As always, make sure your cuts and scrapes are well cleaned and then you can apply St. John's wort oil to help it heal quicker.
